TEMAZCAL or SWEAT LODGE

This is an ancestral ceremony practiced by different cultures. The sauna mirrors the form of an oven. Inside, various healing plants are placed according to the ailments that need to be healed. In addition, essential natural oils and incenses are added for aromatherapy. The heat is achieved using red hot stones that are placed inside the oven (called grandmother stones). Then essential oils. Incense and cold water are poured over the stones, generating a medicating steam that combines all the elements. This ceremony detoxifies and balances the body, mind and spirit. Symbolically it is process of rebirth, arising anew from the cleansing sauna as a child does from the womb. Your pores will open absorbing the healing properties of plants while expelling the toxins from the body. After wards, a pool of icy water directly from the mountains is provided to close the clean pores and to fortify the body.

Includes:

Temazcal , ceremonial music, water, lunch, private transport to/from Cusco - Pisac or Yanahuara.

TEMAZCAL or SWEAT LODGE is conducted by a native Shaman or spiritual guide, duration of 6 hours.

OFFERING TO MOTHER EARTH

The offering to mother earth is an ancestral tradition practiced by various cultures. The offering consists of thanking her for all the blessings in our lives followed by a physical offering. The offering includes fruits, vegetables, grains, ceramics, textiles, jewelry, sweets, chicha, sugar, flowers, and any object or amulet of power that you feel you want to give to the Pachamama. This ceremony can be done as a thank you to mother earth and/or to cleanse your spirit of negative energies.

This offering is performed in sacred places like: Apus (sacred mountains) lakes, ceremonial and energetic centers. There are 2 ways to complete the offering: one way is to bury the offering and the other is to burn it. The ceremony has duration of 2 to 3 hours; it is conducted with a Spiritual Guide or Shaman.

Includes:

Offering to Mother Earth, water, lunch, private transport to/from Cusco - Pisac or Temple of the Moon.
